MURKOWSKI (AND MCCONNELL) AMENDMENT NO. 2621

(Ordered to lie on the table.)

Mr. MURKOWSKI (for himself and Mr. MCCONNELL) submitted an amendment to the bill S. 2638, supra, as follows:

Strike section 207a and add "Notwithstanding any other section of law, no funds may be expended for any cooperation, directly or indirectly, with the armed forces of the government of South Africa, except activities which are reasonably designed to facilitate the collection of necessary intelligence."

DURENBERGER AMENDMENT NOS. 2622 THROUGH 2625

(Ordered to lie on the table.)

Mr. DURENBERGER submitted four amendments intended to be proposed by him to the bill S. 2638, supra, as follows:

AMENDMENT No. 2622

At the appropriate place in the bill, add the following new section:

Sec. . No agency or entity of the United States may engage in any form of cooperation, direct or indirect, with the armed forces of the government of South Africa, except activities which are reasonably designed to facilitate the collection of necessary intelligence. Each such activity shall be considered a significant anticipated intelligence act for the purpose of Sec. 501 of the National Security Act of 1947.

AMENDMENT No. 2623

At the appropriate place in the amendment, add the following new section:

Sec. . No agency or entity of the United States which is involved in intelligence activities may, directly or indirectly, provide any intelligence information to the Republic of South Africa which pertains to the African National Congress or any other South African Group, movement, organization or individual which is engaged in activities in opposition to the government of the Republic of South Africa, except if the information credibly indicates the imminent likelihood of violent action calculated to threaten human life. In the event that any intelligence information pertaining to opposition activities is transmitted to the Republic of South Africa, either in an authorized or unauthorized manner, the Director of Central Intelligence shall promptly inform the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate and Permanent Select Committee of Intelligence of the House of Representatives of the facts and circumstances regarding the nature of the information and its transmission.

AMENDMENT No. 2624

At the appropriate place in the bill, add the following new section:

Sec. . No agency or entity of the United States which is involved in intelligence activities may, directly or indirectly, provide any intelligence information to the Republic of South Africa which pertains to the African National Congress or any other South African Group, movement, organization or individual which is engaged in activities in opposition to the government of the Republic of South Africa, except if the information credibly indicates the imminent likelihood of violent action calculated to threaten human life. In the event that any intelligence information pertaining to opposition activities is transmitted to the Republic of South Africa, either in an authorized or unauthorized manner, the Director of Central Intelligence shall promptly inform the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate and Permanent Select Committee of Intelligence of the House of Representatives of the facts and circumstances regarding the nature of the information and its transmission.

AMENDMENT No. 2625

At the appropriate place in the amendment, add the following new section:

Sec. . No agency or entity of the United States may engage in any form of cooperation, direct or indirect, with the armed forces of the government of South Africa, except activities which are reasonably designed to facilitate the collection of necessary intelligence. Each such activity shall be considered a significant anticipated intelligence act for the purpose of Sec. 501 of the National Security Act of 1947.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION APPROPRIATIONS

SIMON AMENDMENT NO. 2626

(Ordered to lie on the table.)

Mr. SIMON submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by him to the bill (H.R. 5052) making appropriations for military construction of the Department of Defense for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1987, and for other purposes; as follows:

At the appropriate place in the bill, insert the following new section:

Sec. . (a) The Congress finds that—
(1) the United States historically has supported international law;
(2) every American President since World War II has attempted to strengthen international law and the role of the International Court of Justice; and
(3) the United States helped to create international legal standards and helped to formulate international agreements such as—
(A) the Charter of the United Nations;
(B) four conventions done at Geneva on August 12, 1949, relative to the treatment of civilians, prisoners of war, and the wounded and sick during time of war;
(C) the Charter of the Organization of American States; and
(D) the Statute of the International Court of Justice.

(b) None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act may be available for any program or activity in Nicaragua which violates customary international law or conflicts with treaty obligations of the United States under the international agreements described in subsection (a).

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT, FISCAL YEAR 1987

WALLOP (AND OTHERS) AMENDMENT NO. 2627

Mr. WALLOP (for himself, Mr. QUAYLE, and Mr. WILSON) proposed an amendment to the bill S. 2638, supra, as follows:

At the end thereof, add the following:

Sec. . REPORT ON THE ANTI-BALLISTIC MISSILE TREATY.—The Secretary of Defense shall, not later than February 1, 1987, transmit to Congress a report concerning the impact of the less restrictive interpretation of the Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty. Such report shall include, but not be limited to the following:

(1) an analysis of the ramifications of the less restrictive interpretation on the development under the Strategic Defense Initiative program, of strategic defenses, including comprehensive strategic defense systems, and more limited defenses designed to protect vital U.S. military and command and control assets, based on "other physical principles". This analysis should compare research and development programs pursued under both the restrictive and less restrictive interpretations of the ABM Treaty, including a comparative analysis of—
(A) the overall cost of the research and development programs;
(B) the schedule of the research and development programs; and
(C) the level of confidence attained in the research and development programs with respect to supporting a full-scale engineering development decision in the early 1990s; and (2) a list of options under the less restrictive interpretation of the ABM Treaty that meet one or more of the following objectives: (a) reduce the overall development cost, (b) to advance the schedule for a full-scale engineering development decision, or (c) to increase the level of confidence in the results of the research by the original full-scale development date.

(A) the overall cost of the research and development programs

(B) the schedule of the research and development programs; and

(C) the level of confidence attained in the research and development programs with respect to supporting a full-scale engineering development decision in the early 1990s; and (2) a list of options under the less restrictive interpretation of the ABM Treaty that meet one or more of the following objectives: (a) reduce the overall development cost, (b) to advance the schedule for a full-scale engineering development decision, or (c) to increase the level of confidence in the results of the research by the original full-scale development date.

LAUTENBERG (AND OTHERS) AMENDMENT NO. 2628

Mr. LAUTENBERG (for himself, Mr. LEVIN, Mr. D'AMATO, Mr. KERRY, Mr. WILSON, Mr. SIMON, Mr. BOSCHWITZ, Mr. SPECTER, Mr. GRASSLEY, and Mr. MOYNIHAN) proposed an amendment to the bill S. 2628, supra; as follows:

On page 229, between lines 14 and 15, insert the following new section:

SEC. 121. WEARING RELIGIOUS APPAREL NOT PART OF THE OFFICIAL UNIFORM.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 45 of title 10, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by redesignating section 774 as section 775; and

(2) inserting after section 773 the following new section:
